The Policy consists of this document, the Schedule and any endorsements affixed (or intended to be affixed) to it and the Application. All of them should be read as if they were one document. This Policy is subject to Australian law and practice.

Your certificate of insurance

Your certificate of insurance contains important details about Your policy such as the period of insurance, Your premium, what cover options and Deductibles will apply, and any changes to the policy wording.

What makes up Your premium

Your premium is determined by a number of factors and of course, the higher the risk is, the higher the premium. Your premium also includes amounts that We are required to pay, such as government charges, taxes or levies (e.g. stamp duty and GST) that apply to Your policy.

5. Important Information About This Policy Wording

This document contains important information required under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (the Act) and has been prepared to assist You in understanding Your policy and making an informed choice about Your insurance requirements. It is up to You to choose the cover You need.

It is important that You carefully read and understand this document before making a decision. Other documents may form part of Our Policy Wording and if they do, We will tell You in the relevant document.

6. Your Duty of Disclosure

What You must tell Us

We will ask You various questions when You apply for cover. When You answer those questions, You must take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to Us. We will use the answers in deciding whether to insure You, and anyone else to be insured under the Policy, and on what terms. You have this same duty to disclose those matters to Us before You renew, extend, vary or reinstate Your Policy.

If You do not tell Us

If You do not answer Our questions in this way, We may reduce Our liability under contract in respect of a claim or refuse to pay a claim, or cancel the Policy. If You answer Our questions fraudulently, We may refuse to pay a claim and treat the Policy as never having commenced.
